Students in first through fifth grade complete assessments electronically. This school-wide sustainability practice reduces solid waste. At this time, more than 70 assessments have been completed using computer based testings platforms.
Multiple classwork assignments are posted weekly to the Online Learning Management System, Brightspace, in grades 3-5. This school-wide sustainability practice reduces solid waste. At this time, more than 270 students complete computer based classwork assignments.